

Newton Westpark Primary School

Newsletter Week Ending 15th June 2018

Ilam Hall Trip

Year 6 had such a fantastic time on this year's residential to Ilam Hall. They did lots of activities including orienteering, making rockets, a guided walk to Dovedale stepping stones, team building activities, a minibeast hunt and habitat building. All of the children were so well behaved and really enjoyed it. More pictures can be found on the school blog.

INSPIRE

The next INSPIRE session for parents and children starting Reception class in September will be on Tuesday (19th June) here at school at 2:00 pm.

Walking Home from School

Polite Notice - Children will not be allowed to walk home from school unless written consent has been given from the parent/carer. Consent forms are available for completion from the school office. Thank you.

KS2 Leigh School Games

KS2 children had lots of fun this week at Leigh Sports Village taking part in the Leigh School Games. Year 5 came 1st place in the team challenge, Y4 performed brilliantly in Cricket and Y3 gave a fantastic performance in tag rugby!

Well Done everyone for all your hard work, effort and exceptional behavior whilst representing Newton Westpark Primary School!

Y4 Class Assembly

It is the Y4 class assembly at 9:00 am next Wednesday (20th June). Everyone is welcome to attend.

Summer Holiday activities

Are you struggling for things to do in the summer holidays? Why not take a look at the holiday club activities on Wigan Youth Zone website www.wiganyouthzone.org or telephone 01942 612061 for more info.
