INSPIRE

The next INSPIRE session for parents and children starting Reception class in September will be on Tuesday (26th June) here at school at 2:00 pm.

Spelling Bee

This week we have taken part in a series of spelling bees in school. Schools from the local area were invited to compete. We had a year 1 & 2 team, 3 & 4 team and a 5 & 6 team. There were 6 activities testing children's spelling ability, teamwork and resilience and we are very proud to announce that Year 6 came first overall in their spelling test. All schools that took part did fantastically well.

Tea with Westleigh

Westleigh High School will be hosting a 'Tea with Westleigh' event at Newton Westpark on Monday 25th June @ 3.15pm. Information will be available for all new starters and future pupils interested in Westleigh High School. Children and parents from Years 5 and 6 are welcome to attend.

Pyramid Club

On Friday last week the Pyramid Club went to Haigh Hall for the day. They all had a fantastic time. They went for a woodland walk, did some den building, played on the park and had Ice cream.

Year 3 School of Military

For the last 13 weeks, Year 3 have been taking part in a course with the school of military. The course has included building resilience, team building and learning mutual respect which has helped to promote British values within the class.

This week was the last week of the course and the children took part in their passing out parade where they each received a medal and a certificate.
